Writing Competition Guidelines and Conditions

The theme of the competition is “Tell us your story”.

Writers are invited to interpret this theme personally.

“Tell us your story” could be about any aspect of your life on the Kapiti Coast.

This competition is free and open to all residents of the Kapiti Coast.

Each entry may be authored by more than one person ie: one family.

Each entry must be an original work, unpublished and not already accepted for publication.

Copyright of entries submitted will remain with the author. Books at the Beach reserve the right to publish any entry in an eBook, print or on the Books at the Beach website and Facebook page.

Every person or family entering the competition may submit only one story.

Stories/Books should not exceed 1000 words (excluding the title).

The competition opens on the 15th October and closes at 4pm on 21st December 2018.

Entries may be submitted by email through info@booksatthebeach.co.nz

Physical entries to be delivered to a drop box at our local libraries at Paekakariki, Paraparaumu, Waikanae or Otaki, or at Kapiti Knitting and Lotto 24 Maclean St Paraparaumu Beach.

Submitters will receive confirmation, via email, of receipt of their entries. Parents/guardians of children who enter will receive notification that their child has entered the competition.

Entries cannot be withdrawn from the competition, and alterations cannot be made once entered and accepted.

Entries will not be returned.

Entries may not contain offensive or derogatory language.

A panel of judges will determine the winners based on theme, creativity, clarity, style, form and meaning.

The judge's decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Prizes will be awarded to the top two entries in the categories listed on entry form.

Entries into the competition may be in English, Te Reo Maori or sign language with captions.

Finalists will be notified by email prior to the event.

Winners will be announced on Saturday 16th February 2019 at Books at the Beach event at Maclean Park.

The submission of your entry will be taken as indication of acceptance of the above conditions.

I give permission for photographs of winners and finalists to appear on our website/facebook page and any other advertising or press releases.
